

BLOUNT COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1882.

Quarterly Court meets next Monday.

Several communications are crowded out this week, but will appear next.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. D. G. Wright, of Rockford, whom we mentioned in last week's issue as being ill, is better.

Tuesday last a team of Esq. Harrold's, of Louisville, met with an accident in crossing a bridge, smashing up the wagon and injuring a colored man named Burem.

Mr. J. N. Badgett, who has been quite ill for two weeks, is up again.

We call special attention to a notice, in this issue, of our real estate agent, who advertises valuable town property for sale on Monday next. Terms being cash, a bargain can be had.

Mr. Joseph Armbrister, a worthy, Christian citizen, of this district, died at his home on the 29th inst., at the age of 63 years. We will give a more extended notice next week.

A most foul murder was committed on the 24th ult., on Nine-Mile creek, near Wells' Mills. Robt. Flannagin and Jo. Nichols, chair-makers, quarreled about some chairs, when Flannagin struck Nichols on the head with a stick of timber weighing 34 pounds, killing him instantly. Flannagin is the father-in-law of Nichols. The murderer fled. They were both sober.

In our brief notice of our worthy contemporary, the Watchman, in our last issue, we inadvertently omitted to state that it was printed by Mr. John A. Silsby, formerly of the Maryville Index. The mechanical work reflects credit on the art preservative. We are in receipt of the second number, which shows decided improvement. It is the purpose of the managers to move the office, as we learn, from Knoxville, where it is now printed, to this place, at no distant day. We welcome the new enterprise and wish it a long and useful life.

James H. Donaldson, Esq., of Loudon county, was in town Monday last. Mr. D. is a remarkable man; he is 70 odd years of age, and says he has never had a day's sickness in the whole course of his life, and has never taken a dose of medicine. While he shows age, he gets about as though he was not more than 50 years of age. He is a good business man, having been engaged pretty much all his life in the goods business, and has amassed a handsome fortune. He held the office of Justice of the peace for many years, and, in 1865, was elected to represent Blount county in the Legislature, and was an efficient, active member of the same. He is a Republican in politics; is a consistent member of the church. We know the above to be facts, having had a personal knowledge of him for 20 years, and Loudon county would honor herself by sending him to the coming Legislature.

Personal.

Capt. J. A. Greer, of Knoxville, is in town.

Capt. J. C. Hale, of Brick Mill, arrived from Washington City, Thursday, looking quite improved from his stay at the capital.

Mr. A. Kennedy, Sr., was in town this week and called to see us. Mr. K. says that one dollar is not enough for the DEMOCRAT, per year, and handed us a half more. Mr. K. is a true patriot, and appreciates his country paper. Next!

The advertisement of Messrs. Burger, Hood & Co., which appears in this week's issue, deserves something more than a mere passing notice. The firm is composed of men who possess as good business capacity as can be found in this end of the State. From a comparatively small beginning, they have increased their trade, year after year, until a larger building was demanded, and the result is seen in the magnificent brick store-house they now occupy, which will compare favorably with any house in East Tennessee. Mr. Chas. Burger, the buyer, has no superior and few equals in his especial line, while Mr. Wm. M. Hood is not only a clever gentleman, but as a salesman and thorough-going business man, has no superior anywhere. Mr. Jo. Burger retired some months ago and has engaged in banking, a calling for which he is well qualified. In speaking of the increase of business, this house has kept pace with the demands of the times in their purchases, and their present stock, for quantity and quality, far exceeds any heretofore brought by any house in Maryville. Country merchants, in this and adjoining counties, have found it to their interest to buy their goods of this firm. Their trade has extended far into North Carolina. Adjoining counties purchase here in place of Knoxville. In fact, they duplicate Knoxville bills. Merchants who have not traded here are cordially invited to give them a trial. While Messrs. Burger and Hood give their strict attention to business, they have, as clerks, Messrs. Tedford, Kizer, Love, and Mose Burger, all young men, with whom it is a pleasure for the young ladies to trade with. Then, we say, they have the largest stock of goods ever brought to this market. Those who have doubts are asked to call and be convinced that we have not painted the picture in too strong colors. We insist that our Blount county people owe it to this house to give it a strong patronage for their liberality and enterprise. They have done much to build up our town and county.

Burglars and sneak-thieves are reported to be around. Look sharp!

Hon. L. C. Hook will speak in the Opera House, Knoxville, on the 8th inst.

A sneak-thief entered the smoke-house of Rev. Mr. Hyden, in east Maryville, last Friday night, and walked off by the light of the moon with a nice ham.

It is reported that "Humpy" John Gibson shot a chicken-thief out of his hen-roost the other night, and a citizen of the outskirts is said to have extracted about a pint of bird-shot from his body.

A Good Thing.

For the prompt relief of pain of all kinds, there is nothing so good as Dr. Hart's Great Relief. This remedy is so well known that it is probably not necessary to speak of its merits, but lest there should be some one who has failed to give it a trial, we say, if you have any sort of pain try Dr. Hart's Relief.

On Sunday morning last, near Home Station, on the E. T., Va. & Ga. Railroad, a passenger train was wrecked, literally smashing up a new sleeper, fatally injuring a colored porter and wounding several persons.

It is impossible for a woman after a faithful course of treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound, to continue to suffer with a weakness of the uterus. Enclose a stamp to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for her pamphlet.

Complicated Diseases.

A prominent gentleman in Cerro Gordo County, Iowa, writes us that he finds Kidney-Wort to be the best remedy he ever knew for a complication of diseases. It is the specific action which it has on the liver, kidneys and bowels, which gives it such curative power, and it is the thousands of cures which it is performing which gives it its great celebrity. Liquid (very concentrated) or dry. Both act efficiently.—N. H. Journal and Courier.

Permit No Substitution.

Insist upon obtaining Floreston Cologne. It is pre-eminently superior in permanence and rich delicacy of fragrance.

The Highest Rank.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the highest rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

For Sale.

Will be sold for cash to the highest bidder, before the court-house door in the town of Maryville, Tenn., April 3d, at 12 M., the Dwelling and Business-house known as the Cassidy property, on Main st., now belonging to C. P. Johnson, Atlanta, Ga.
J. T. WHITE, Real Estate Agt., Maryville, Tenn.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are hereby authorized and requested to announce A. K. KINNAMAN as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Blount County. Election August 3d, 1882.

We are authorized to announce the name of LEE CARPENTER as a candidate for Sheriff. Subject to a primary convention.

J. M. Hood & Bro. are receiving a large stock of Stoves and Hardware which they are offering at very low prices.

J. M. Greer & Co. opened the first stock of goods brought to Blount county after the war.

J. M. Greer & Co. opened the first Hardware house known in the history of Blount county, and now have the hand the largest stock of Hardware, Stoves and Tinware ever brought to the county.

J. M. Greer & Co. opened the first cash market for all kinds of country produce ever offered to the people of Blount county.

J. M. Greer & Co. have arrangements made in eastern and southern cities that will enable them to pay Knoxville prices, in cash, the year round, for all kinds of country produce. Don't forget them.

J. M. Hood & Bro. are now receiving a large lot of Agricultural Implements and have secured the lot adjoining Mr. G. A. Toole, where they will be on exhibition. Make a note of this, farmers.

THE ROYAL PATH OF LIFE.

What is Said of It.

It is a gem of gold and I universally advise my friends to buy it.—P. B. McCarrell, pastor of Mt. Lebanon, Laurel Bank, Pleasant Grove and Bethel churches.

To those who have but few books, it is an encyclopedia.—G. S. W. Crawford, Prof. Maryville College.

The best I can say to my friends is to get it and read it.—E. Goddard, C. & M.

I advise every young man to buy it and read it, if he has to work at 25 cents a day to pay for it.—Jas. W. Hiteh, Esq.

I would not be without it.—Jo. Frye. It is a financial, moral and religious guide.—A. L. Wells.

It cannot be recommended too highly.—Mrs. F. D. Fulkerson.

It is interesting and instructive to old and young.—W. C. Conning.

Words refuse to express my admiration for it.—Thomas Lillard.

It is the best book I have ever read except the Bible.—A. J. Best.

It is worthy of a place in every reading family.—R. F. Walker.

The Bible alone surpasses it as a family guide.—Alex. Williams.

Parents will do well to put it in the hands of their children.—Mrs. L. A. McNutt.

Except the Bible, it is the best book I ever had in my house.—Jasper Mitchell.

I was glad when my unmarried son bought it.—Mrs. Elisha Carpenter.

Its authors has made selections with masterly skill from the store-houses of ancient and modern literature.—D. W. Trotter, Esq.

The essays on youth, young men, young women, associates, books, reading, luck and pluck, etc., are full of advice and cheer.—J. L. Wallace.

I can see its influence on young men.—W. R. Dawson.

About the fire-side or under the shade-trees it is a welcome visitor.—James P. Raulston.

I have never seen it surpassed in literature.—Thos. C. Clark.

There is not a dull page in it.—Nath. Goddard.

The two subjects, honesty and integrity, as discussed in it, are worth its cost.—J. O. Brown.

It is an aid to parents worth many times its cost.—W. L. McGlinchey.

It is well worth its cost.—N. B. Ellis.

The subjects discussed in this book are interesting and important. The arrangement and style are very attractive. The whole spirit and tenor of the book are moral and elevating. It is well worth reading and worthy of a wide circulation.—T. J. Lamar.

I think every Christian parent should have a copy in his family. I would not have my children without it. I earnestly recommend it to all Christians, irrespective of creed.—W. W. Freshour.

Each and every one of the foregoing testimonials were given with a full understanding that they were to be published. Upon the popularity and Christian integrity of these parties I dare not comment.

Respectfully,
H. T. CLEMENS, Agt.

Have you Ever

Known any person to be seriously ill without a weak stomach or inactive liver or kidneys? And when these organs are in good condition do you not find their possessor enjoying good health? Parker's Ginger Tonic regulates these important organs, makes the blood rich and pure, and strengthens every part of the system. See other column.

H. C. Austin

Has a special bargain in the "New Family Sewing Machine," upon the Singer Family model, and which needs no introduction. It is the best of its kind in the market, and will give better satisfaction than other machines of its kind, and now is your time to get a good Machine before they are gone. He is selling them at from $25 to 30. Call and see him.

Faded Colors Restored.

Faded or gray hair gradually recovers its youthful color and lustre by the use of Parker's Hair Balsam, an elegant dressing, admired for its purity and rich perfume.
